A Tribute to Sergei Parajanov

The Most Acclaimed & Influential Armenian Filmmaker of All Time!

Part II: The Color of Pomegranates

(Dir. Sergei Parajanov, 1969, 79 mins, in Armenian/Azerbaijani/Georgian)

With Special Guest Film Scholar & Historian Steven Uusitalo, who will introduce and lead post-viewing discussion

Hailed as "one of the greatest masterpieces of the 20th century" this revolutionary experimental tribute to Armenian troubadour Sayat Nova (King of Song) explores the poet's life through his poems, rather than conventional narrative. Sofiko Chiaureli plays 6 different (both male & female) roles in this imaginative visual experience.

Join us for this rare chance to view & discuss this challenging Armenian classic with one of the world's leading Parajanov scholars!
