(2015, Dir. Bernard George, 52 mins, featuring Taner Akçam)

Home of Nairy Digris & Terry McGibbon
1703 Skillman Ave W, Roseville, MN 55113

A fascinating story of conspiracy & revenge!

This documentary features archival footage and fictional reenactments to examine the trial and legacy of Soghoman Tehirian, a young operative of Operation Nemesis, who assassinated “Young Turk” leader Talaat Pasha in Berlin on March 15, 1921. Among numerous scholars is featured Turkish historian Taner Akçam, a leading scholar of the Armenian genocide—imprisoned in Turkey for his work—and former professor at the University of MN’s Center for Holocaust & Genocide Studies, who will visit the Twin Cities this May.
