ACOM Baking Class

Saturday, November 5, 2016

By Francis Bulbulian

A total of 16 people attended the ACOM Baking Class on November 5, 2016 in the basement kitchen of St Sahag Church. Considering it was a beautiful sunny Fall day, a group 3 times larger than Judy had expected showed up. The Cooking class was meticulously organized by Judy Ohanesian, Adrienne Hayes & Michele Angell. They had everything ready to go for teaching the attendees, which included me. Instructions were given on how to make Gata (Katah) and Choreg. To save time, Judy and Adrienne had premixed the dough and let it rise, ready for the participants to take baseball size portions and roll the dough out flat with rolling pins. This was all a new experience for me and a very exciting process. Adrienne, assisted by daughter Jackie, showed us how to add the pre-portioned Gata ingredients with brown sugar, minced walnuts, chamich (raisins), and koritz (a cooked mixture of butter and flour). We then rolled & twisted the flattened dough and ingredients into a circle shape ready for the oven. Most of us took the Gata and Choreg home to bake at 20-25 minutes at 350 degrees, otherwise we would have been there late into night. I have skipped many nuances in the process in my amateur descriptions. My apologies.

The preparation steps are better seen in photos. Adrienne Hayes demonstrated the process for Gata since it was her family's recipe. The same similar recipe can be found in the Armenian Cookbook "Treasured Armenian Recipes". Under Judy's direction, we worked on the Choreg. Very similar process to the Gata making, but different rolling and braiding techniques and condiments included in the making of Choreg.

When I got home, I could not wait to put the Gata & Choreg buns in the oven to bake. The smell of the baking filled the whole house. By then, we were getting very hungry and upon taking the items out of the oven they were almost all devoured. DELICIOUS!!

By popular demand, there are additional ACOM cooking classes in the planning. To all those who participated in the ACOM choreg and gata baking class on Saturday, November 5th, and those who were unable to make it. This link (<https://vimeo.com/168826345>) will take you to a very touching video in French with English subtitles. Enjoy!

P.S. The recipes for both breads will be available on the ACOM Website.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congrats and best wishes to Andrea and Lowell Johnson's daughter Molly and husband Nash and their baby boy on their recent move from California to Minneapolis.

Bradley Erickson on graduating from the University of St. Thomas University with a BA degree in Business, with focus on accounting. Bradley also started employment with Buhler in Plymouth where he can use his education and training.

The Erickson family is to be congratulated also on the wedding of Mitchell Erickson and Sarah Schmidt which took place on August 13, 2016.

DEEPEST SYMPATHY

It is with deep sadness that we announce that Hank Manthei has lost his sister, Debra, only 5 months after his mother's death.

Deb died in ICU at the University of Minnesota Hospital, from an intense pulmonary infection, along with other severe medical problems. She was only 61. She had been in and out of various hospitals and rehab centers, but finally lost the battle on the morning of October 26, 2016, around 10 am.

We will always remember Deb and her mom Jeanette who came regularly to ACOM's picnics, Gagahants and other events. We will miss them both very much.

Hank has a brother and sister-in-law who live in Connecticut.

SPEEDY RECOVERY

To Judy Ohannesian's sister, Margaret, who fell and broke her hip. She is currently staying with Judy and Doug while recuperating.

Mark Wiersbeck had surgery to repair a torn meniscus on his knee Sept. 6th. He is doing a whole lot better and is happy to be moving around easier and returning to work.

Sylvia Mesroubian currently lives in Oakdale. She had a broken wrist and unfortunately, she broke the other wrist as well. We wish her speedy healing.

THANK YOU

For sending the fruit and treat basket to Doug, my sister Margaret and me. We have been enjoying it very much. We are all doing fine and are taking life one day at a time. My sister is now walking up to 20 steps at a time, so that is all progress.

Sincerely,
Judy Ohannesian

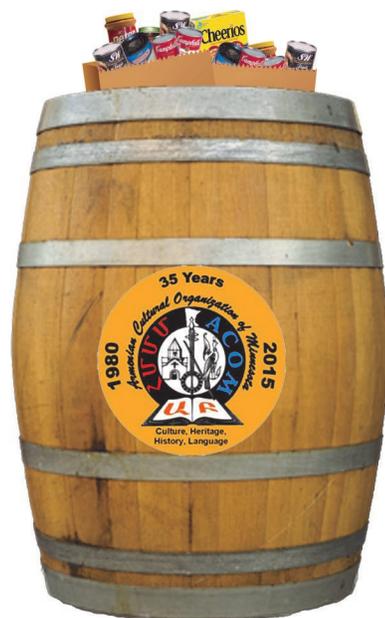

Dearest ACOM,
Thank you so much for the thoughtful basket you sent today after my knee surgery. There is so much fruit and goodies to last quite a while. I am so thankful to be part of this "family" ACOM community. Please pass this message along to other committee members I may have missed. Hope to see you down the road, once I get off these crutches in six weeks. The good news is that the surgery went very well and I am in no pain.

Thanks again,
Mark Wiersbeck

FOOD SHELF DONATIONS

REMEMBER THOSE LESS FORTUNATE THAN US !

Quite a few years ago, ACOM placed an empty barrel for food donations in Fellowship Hall; it was falling apart and has now been replaced. There are a lot of empty grocery bags in that barrel. If you are in Fellowship Hall, remember to pick up a bag, take it home, fill it with non-perishable food items and bring it back with you next time. Place the filled bag in the barrel and an ACOM board member will deliver it to Keystone Food Shelf.

THANK YOU TO THOSE WHO HAVE CONTRIUTED!

Dear ACOM Committee Members
 Thank you for the azalea plant that arrived Friday afternoon. It was a nice surprise and I appreciate your thoughtfulness and kindness.

ADE AT MINNESOTA STATE FAIR

The Armenians put on 4 half-hour shows at the State Fair on Saturday, Aug. 27. It drizzled a little here and there, but all in all, it was extremely well attended. Huge crowds. We even got a bunch of people to join us at the end of each set and taught them some simple Armenian dances.

"We caught a few of your dances. Glad it wasn't hot. You looked good, but I felt for you, dancing on the concrete...."

MINNESOTA
 ARMENIAN
 PROJECT

This is an interest group for Minnesota Armenians and friends who are interested in researching and documenting their family history, building family trees, learning about new archival and DNA resources for documenting their past, and creating a genealogy network for the Minnesota Armenian community. We will host presentations, workshops, and informal help sessions on a regular basis, and post resources and research tips on the group page, and serve as a forum for helping each other! For more information, contact:

ARMENIAN SCHOLARSHPS

Armenian organizations across the country offer scholarships and fellowships for students of Armenian descent to pursue their undergraduate and graduate degrees. The Armenite Website (<http://thearmenite.com/2016/02/armenian-scholarships-2016/>) provides you with a good list of opportunities available. What is very helpful on the applications is demonstrated volunteer experience and service to the Armenian community. ACOM can offer opportunities for you to volunteer and serve the Armenian Community! If your student is interested, please contact ACOM Social Director, John, for more information on volunteering:

What was it like Growing up Armenian in

8th in the series

On Sunday, October 23, 2016, ACOM hosted the 8th session of its popular program “What Was It Like Growing Up Armenian In ...”. This time we broke from tradition and had four participants instead of the three that we had in all previous sessions. Also, all four participants grew up in the United States.

Taking part this time were Aram “Sam” Charchian who grew up on the “poor south side” of Troy, New York, Judy Ohanessian, originally from Detroit, Michigan, Mark Keljik, a life-long resident of Minneapolis, Minnesota, and Cynthia Reimers Erickson, who grew up in that hot-bed of Armenians called North Dakota.

Aram described his early life in Troy where he lived in a row house in a neighborhood filled with Italian and Irish kids. There were other Armenians around, though, because he attended an Armenian church. That was OK though, he said, because the Armenian Church seemed to be pretty similar to the Catholic churches that the other kids attended. When he ultimately moved to the Twin Cities, he was happy to meet so many Armenians in the area, most of whom he’s still friends with today. Aram was one of the founding members of ACOM.

Judy described being immersed in Armenian culture in Detroit because of all of her relatives in the area and the large number of Armenians there. She moved to the Twin Cities for her work and ended up being an early member of ACOM.

Mark’s grandfather was one of the first, if not

THE first, Armenian in Minnesota. His family has been involved in the oriental rug business for over 100 years. He talked about how, when he was young, there were several different Armenian families with rug stores in the Twin Cities. Mark was also an early member of the ACOM board.

Cynthia talked about growing up on a farm next to Courtenay, North Dakota. Her grandmother lived in nearby Jamestown along with three other Armenian families. While not ‘immersed’ in Armenian culture, the presence of the four families meant that she was exposed to a lot of Armenian food, Armenian music, Armenian dancing and just enough Armenian language for her to learn a little bit. She arrived in the Twin Cities just before the founding of ACOM and started taking part in its events almost from its beginning.

The four speakers covered a lot more interesting topics that what is mentioned here. If you were not able to attend the program when it was held at St. Sahag, keep watching for the new ACOM web site. After it’s up and running, we’ll be posting videos of each of the “What Was It Like ...” sessions on It.

Leroy Erickson

ARMENIAN CULTURAL ORGANIZATION OF MINNESOTA (ACOM)

MISSION STATEMENT

- 1) To provide programs and events which encourage its members to learn Armenian culture, language, history and heritage.
- 2) To provide programs of Armenian culture, language, history and heritage for the general Minnesota area.
- 3) To provide an environment which encourages participation of all Armenians, their relations and friends who have an interest in Armenian culture, regardless of religious, political or social differences, and to promote harmony among its members.
- 4) To provide periodic gatherings and meetings for the cultural furtherance of the Armenian people, their relations and friends who have an interest in Armenian culture within the general Minnesota area.

CONSTITUTION

The Armenian Cultural Organization of Minnesota (ACOM) preserves and promotes Armenian culture, language, history and heritage in Minnesota and the upper Midwest. Founded in 1980 and headquartered in St. Paul, ACOM is the oldest and largest Armenian organization in the state.

ACOM welcomes everyone, regardless of ethnic, religious, or political affiliation, who takes an interest in Armenia and Armenians. Our members include first-generation through fourth-generation Minnesota Armenians, their families, and non-Armenian friends of the community.

ACOM's numerous cultural and social events include Armenian dance parties (barahantess), guest speakers, Armenian language classes, folk dance lessons and performances by the Armenian Dance Ensemble of Minnesota, chamber music concerts by the Armenian Music Ensemble, art shows, summer picnics, and craft sales. ACOM also sponsors all Armenian activities at the International Institute's Festival of Nations, a major regional folk festival held annually in St. Paul. Minnesota Armenians were founding participants in 1932; today, the Festival is ACOM's most visible public venue.

The ACOM office and most activities are in the historic St. Sahag Armenian Church building, at the intersection of Dayton and Howell, in the Merriam Park neighborhood of St. Paul. As an independent, 501 (c)3 non-profit organization, ACOM is supported primarily by membership dues and private donations. Gifts to ACOM are tax-deductible to the extent permissible by law.

Armenian Dance Ensemble of Minnesota

If you have an interest in Armenian dance, if you have danced in the past, or have never danced but really would like to learn and participate, this would be a good time to give it a try. All the dances are taught, and costumes provided. It is a volunteer activity and we only ask for your time commitment. Rehearsals are typically held on Sundays at 12.30 pm. Remember: you do not need to be Armenian to become a member of the dance group, just a desire to learn and enjoy Armenian music and dance.

Note: if you wish to perform with the group, you need to purchase your own "character shoes" and be ready to wear makeup and perform without eye-glasses.

For additional information, call Nairy: 651-639-9346 or email: hyebar@yahoo.com

Youth Musical Showcase

ARMENIAN YOUTH MUSICAL SHOWCASE - July 17, 2016

The Armenian Youth Musical Showcase was a huge success with around 40+ attendees. The concert was held in the sanctuary without amplification which worked very well. We had 7 very talented young musicians who, on short notice, performed on piano, trumpet and euphonium. They made their parents and the Armenian community proud. We will post short videos of the performances on the new ACOM website soon. We have requests for a second concert which we will plan for next year.

New ACOM Chess Club

It goes without saying that there is a long history and enjoyment of the game of Chess in Armenia. It is, after all, the only country in the world where learning chess is a mandatory class in K-12 education! After many requests, ACOM is starting a chess club for all ages who want to learn this classic game of strategy and logic. ACOM will provide chess sets as well as an instructor from the Armenian Community to assist with the learning. Whether you cannot tell a rook from a knight, or can quote all the Armenian Grandmasters of Chess, we look forward to welcoming players of all stages! Held immediately after Fellowship on the first Sunday of each month. To make it more interesting, we will have Tavloo sets available at the same time for the parents. For more information please contact our Social Director, John Parker - Der Boghossian at: jpderboghossian@gmail.com

Voski Ashoun 2016

Dr. Charles Hajinian was our Voski Ashoun speaker this September 24, 2016. He gave the attendees a very fascinating talk on Armenian Coins and their history starting with Tigran II, King of Kings, 95 -55 BC thru King Levon's rule 1374-1375 AD. He brought his extensive collection of coins for Show and Tell. It was a collection worthy of a museum. In his talk, he included much of Armenian history for each period, when various coins were minted by hand. During his 30 minute powerpoint presentation, Dr. Hajinian passed around coins from a period before Christ was born for the audience to view and hold.

In 2015, Dr. Hajinian, along with a few other Milwaukee Armenians, formed the Armenian Numismatic and Antiquities Society, and published a quarterly magazine. He brought many samples of the latter to the event.

The evening's informative talk was a wonderful addition to this year's ACOM cultural programming. Thank you to Peter Hajinian's suggestion for this program. This came up in our discussion of Armenian History books when we were discussing the event in our ACOM Book Club earlier this year.

If you are interested in learning more about the Armenian Numismatic Society, check the following website:
